

Доставка и Установка

Whatever the product you require Constructor will get it to you in perfect condition, on time. Whether you need one bay of shelving or a complete system installation Constructor will ensure that its skills and resources are focused on meeting your requirements fully.

Constructor will always ensure that;

- Products are delivered in accordance with agreed timescales
- All products arrive in excellent condition
- Where required products are installed by fully trained and experienced staff
- Installation takes place to agreed schedules
- Installation methods are documents and where appropriate agreed
- On completion the finished installed product is properly handed over with appropriate documentation to the end user

From its long history as a leading supplier of storage equipment around the world Constructor has built up a widely spread network of wholly owned subsidiaries and 3rd party distributors that can help get our products delivered and installed to our customers requirements almost anywhere in the world.